

Kevin Little

I don't remember a time of not being at SEC. Brought along at the age of three I grew up through the Sunday school and various Kids clubs and youth groups. I don't remember a time of not knowing about Jesus and Gods love for me. Did that automatically make me a Christian? Absolutely not!

At the age of 11 I gave my life to Christ, at the age of 18 I was baptised and in my early twenties I had an encounter with the Holy Spirit that dramatically changed my life and gave me a real passion for Jesus and for the Word of God. I love digging deep into Gods word and discovering what He has to say to me and through me.

Married to Ruth in 1988, we have been blessed with two children who have both grown up fast with their school years now behind them.

Outside of my Family life, church life and work life I have one other passion for which I suffer much ridicule especially from my wife and that is my lifelong following of Colchester United. (well someone has to).
